Man Charged In Attempted Bingo Fraud Remanded For Trial

A man who appeared in Edmonton city police court last Thursday charged with attempting to get a 1956 Chevrolet car by fraud in a bingo game reserved his plea, and was remanded until Aug. 28. Bail for Fred Murray Bailey of no fixed address was set at $2000.00.

Police said Bailey was one of the 1500 persons attending a drive-in bingo event sponsored by the St. Michael's Association, August 11.

The new car is being held pending completion of the investigation. Exhibits, including a bingo card, which were seized at the game, have been sent to the RCMP laboratory in Regina.

At 5 p.m. two hours before the game was scheduled to start, four persons, three men and a woman, called at the grounds and purchased a card. They left, and returned at game time to buy four more cards. Suspicious officials of the association kept a watch on the vehicle.

Throughout the game prior to the car bingo, they said, the four persons remained in the car and kept the windows shielded with clothing.

They were continuing their investigations in the alleged attempted fraud and were looking for two men and a woman in connection with the affair. St. Michael is about 50 miles east of Edmonton.

Life Guard Makes Swimming Safe For Children

Throughout the long summer days, the children of Lac la Biche can swim and romp and play in the water at the town dock and mothers go about their household duties or make their social calls with an easy mind, for on duty at the dock is a sturdy lad, who is a certified life guard and swimming instructor.

Fifteen-year-old Danny Hamar, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andy Hamar of Edmonton, has been swimming since he was four years of age, and taking part in swimming competitions since he was nine. Last year he won the provincial achievement cup and has numerous trophies won in both Alberta and Saskatchewan competitions.

Sponsored by the Lac la Biche Lions Club, Danny is here for the entire summer. A large number of children have taken advantage of the swimming instructions given by such an able teacher.

Brinsmead Family Moves To City

Well-known residents of Lac la Biche for nine years, where he carried on a successful medical practise, Dr. Allan Brinsmead and family left the first of the week for Edmonton, where the doctor will serve the Crestwood district. Born and raised in the city of Winnipeg Dr. Brinsmead received his training in medicine at the Winnipeg Medical Faculty. During the second World War he served overseas for three years as a medical officer. Shortly after returning from overseas the Brinsmead family came to Lac la Biche. Their beautiful home on Lakeshore Promenade is one of the show places of the town.

Before their departure for their new home the Brinsmeads were farewelled on several occasions by their many friends. At a farewell party held at the Legion Hut last Saturday evening, the townspeople made a presentation of a beautiful 400-day clock. On Sunday at the United Church the congregation wished them "Godspeed" and presented Mrs. Brinsmead with a lovely chest and the doctor with a leather bound Bible, in appreciation of their services in the church. The best wishes of the community go with them to their new home.

80 New Books For Library

LAC LA BICHE — A shipment of 80 new books has arrived recently for the WI library, which already contains some 2,400 volumes. Mrs. Floyd McMillan, librarian, reports that some of these books are replacements but most of the books are new to this library.

Situated in the wide hallway of the town offices, the library was started 10 years ago, and ably cared for by volunteer WI ladies fills a real need in the community not only for school children, but for anyone anxious to obtain excellent reading material. The hours in which books may be obtained are from 2 to 4:30 Friday afternoons. More staff will be on duty at the library to cope with the large number of country children, who will require books as soon as school opens.

Lake Level Rises; Waterfront Damaged

LAC LA BICHE (BUP) — Rising waters have damaged roads, wharves and some buildings at Lac la Biche, 120 miles north of Edmonton.

Provincial water resources officials in Edmonton said this week they were aware of the situation but said they had received no request for aid against the "natural phenomenon."

Michael Maccagno, Lac la Biche MLA, said two 100-yard stretches of the road had been washed out about 20 miles northwest of the town. "There's nothing spectacular about the flooding yet," he said, but added that the water was still rising.

Anglican Mission In October

One of the missioners coming to the Athabasca Deanery of Athabasca Diocese, this coming October will be the Rev. Professor J. R. Fife, C. de G., M. A. of Emmanuel College, Saskatoon.

Professor Fife will be known to many in the Lac la Biche area as one of the early students in St. Peter's Mission during the 1930's. Since his ordination in 1938 he has served in a wide variety of positions. These have ranged from a curacy in Christ Church Cathedral, Victoria, B. C. to a chaplaincy overseas with the RCAF during the last war. For distinguished service he was awarded the Croix de Guerre by the government of Belgium.

After returning from overseas Prof. Fife spent two summers in work in the Arctic among our Eskimo people. 85% of all the Canadian Eskimos are members of the Anglican Church of Canada. He worked out from All Saints Cathedral, Aklavik, the most northerly cathedral in the world. This is the See for the largest Diocese in the world, covering some 2,225,000 square miles and stretching from Baffin Island in the east to the Mackenzie River delta in the west.

Professor Fife is a graduate of Emmanuel College, Saskatoon, originally the University of Saskatchewan. He now holds the post of Professor of New Testament Languages in his alma mater. During the past 75 years Emmanuel College has been known in the west for its missionary tradition, many of the great heroes and pioneers in this country, being graduates.

He will be in the missions of Boyle and Grassland during the third week of October.

Water Skiing At Lac la Biche

Many carloads of tourists continue to try their luck at fishing, not only in Lac la Biche, but at Beaver Lake and other numerous lakes in this area. Jimmie Lloyd's speed boat, "What IV", is a familiar sight on Lac la Biche of an evening and the latest sport is water skiing, at which some of the fellows are becoming very adept.

Joseph House Laid To Rest

LAC LA BICHE — The funeral of an old pioneer of this district was held last Monday when Joseph House was laid to rest in the cemetery at Beaver River Colony, Caslan.

The service was attended by over 100 relatives and friends, many of whom travelled great distances in order to be present. Mr. House is survived by his widow and son William.

The service was conducted by the Rev. Robert Greene, rector of St. Andrew's Anglican Church, Lac la Biche assisted by the Rev. Bernard Hart, rector of St. Paul's Church Boyle.

School Principal Is Superintendent

LAC LA BICHE — Mr. and Mrs. N. Myskiw and and children, Billy and Karon, left Thursday evening to take up residence in Two Hills. Mr. Myskiw has been superintendent of the Lac la Biche School Division for the past three years, coming to this district from Two Hills, where he had served as school principal.

Mr. Myskiw received his education in this province, earning a B.Sc. and a B.Ed. at the University of Alberta. For the summer months, he has been taking extra-curricular studies at the University of Washington in Seattle, working toward further degrees.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Myskiw say that it is with mixed feelings that they leave Lac la Biche, but they are confident that they will like their new location, especially since they have many friends and acquaintances there. Judging by the high esteem in which the family is held in this district, it seems safe to predict that the Myskiws will soon make new friends in the Smoky Lake School Division, and that the position of school superintendent there will be in very capable hands.

EDMONTON — The council of the Northwest Territories, headed by Territorial Commissioner R. G. Robertson of Ottawa, left here Monday for the new townsite of Aklavik for what is believed the first sitting of a legislative body above the Arctic Circle.

The party will fly to Tuktoyaktuk, 1,200 miles north of Edmonton on the Arctic Ocean. From there they will be taken in smaller planes to the new Aklavik townsite, 100 miles southwest of Tuktoyaktuk.

Elected members John Parker of Yellowknife, Robert Porritt of Hay River, John Goodall of Fort Simpson and Frank Carmichael of Aklavik, will also join the party en route.

Sessions open Aug. 23 and are expected to continue to Aug. 31.

District Farmers Stock Piling Hay

District farmers are heeding the advice of their agricultural department fieldmen and are stock piling hay if the evidence in the field means anything. On an extensive tour of the farming district on Sunday we counted 18 different types of hay stacks, some containing an estimated 20 tons of good hay. There of course were piles of baled hay and stooks of greenfeed too.

Cutting of barley is now underway, with some stands of oats to be cut this week. However, it will be well after the end of this month before combining in the district is general, because of the late seeding in many parts crops of wheat and some barley and rye are still quite green and will require a great deal of warm dry weather before they can be harvested.

However, farmers report that a good yield is apparent as long as the weather remains warm. Another bumper crop year.

A record number of people from other countries visited Canada in 1955—the total number of visits being 28,300,000.

Home Hints

By DORIS MONTALBETTI

For Your New Home Freezer

You can freeze so many foods it's easier to tell you what not to freeze. Potatoes for instance and tomatoes are better canned. Uncooked salad greens and bananas are not freezing material. But most other foods can be frozen: meats, fruits, pies, cakes, ice cream, rolls, stews, cooked dishes of various kinds.

However, some varieties of fruits and vegetables freeze better than others. You can get this list free from this office, also a booklet on freezing.

Foods come out of the freezer just as good as they go in, but no better. So gather your fruit and vegetables at the height of maturity, fully ripe and sweet. Pick only as much as you can prepare quickly — because the longer you hold it after gathering, the poorer it will be after freezing. Two hours from vine to freezer is an excellent rule.

It's easy to freeze — fruits require only a thorough washing and sweetening. One part of sugar to four parts of fruit will do. The waxed boxes, round or square are suitable containers. Allow 3/4" head space when filling.

Vegetables must be blanched or scalded in boiling water. This improves the color, saves the vitamins and stops deterioration. Scald only one pound of vegetables at one time, for each pound you need six quarts of water. Then cool the vegetables immediately after scalding by immersing in large pan or sink of ice water, or by holding under cold water at least two minutes. Plastic bags or plastic bags wit hwaxed boxes are good. Save your bags from one year to the next.

The freezer needs little care. When the frost becomes ½" thick it should be scraped off. It should be thoroughly defrosted once a year and washed in a soda solution. This means emptying the freezer, but it's not a long process and foods keep during this short time in heavy cartons covered with blankets.
